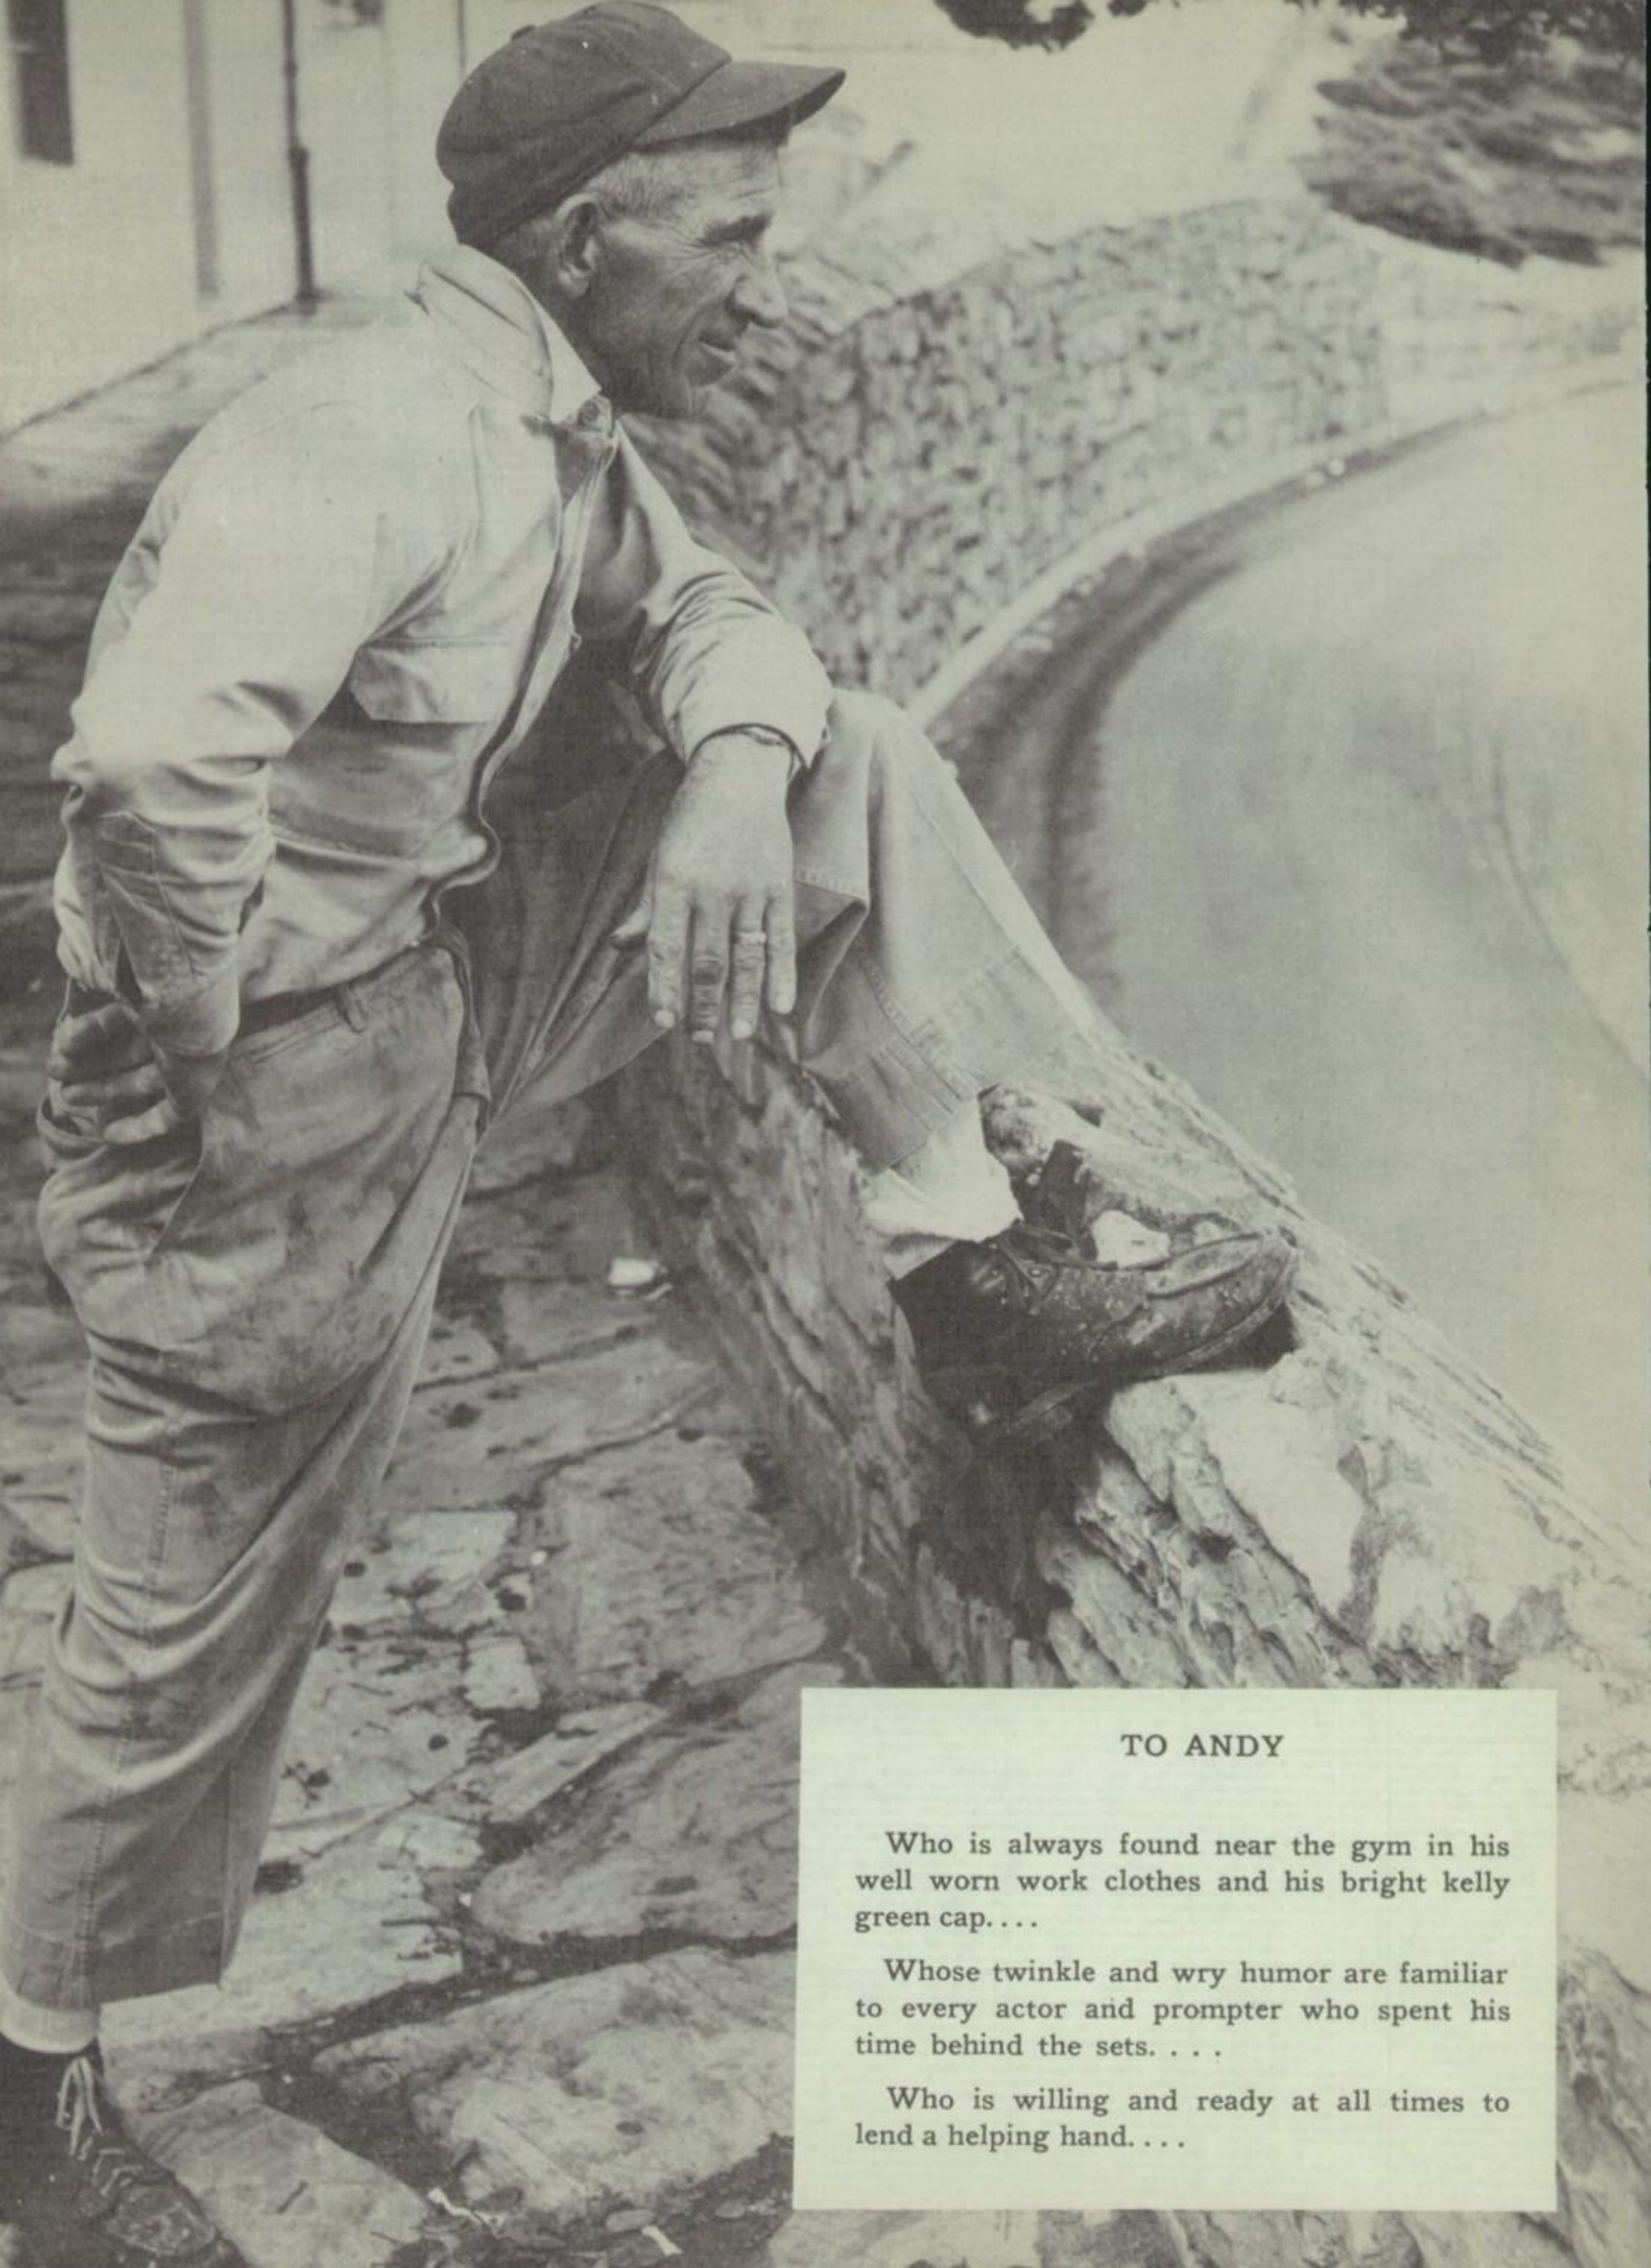
As the curtain always falls on a successful play, so has this year at Monterey Union High School come to a close. Looking through the El Susurro you will find caught in stills; many scenes from our production and accountings of the activities that made headlines. The events that took place before the footlights, during the intermission, and after the show are reviewed as we focus the spotlight on . . . MUHS '53.



TO ANDY

Who is always found near the gym in his well worn work clothes and his bright kelly green cap. . . .

Whose twinkle and wry humor are familiar to every actor and prompter who spent his time behind the sets. . . .

Who is willing and ready at all times to lend a helping hand. . . .

In every successful play it is the actors who give the final touch to any performance. Students, from the seniors in their starring roles to the chorus of freshmen, stepped out on the stage at the end of Larkin Street to learn new skills and to participate in the acts that made this production a memorable and enjoyable experience.. From opening day until the close of a wonderful season, the spotlight was on the . . . CAST

WITH GALA PERFORMANCE

George Yaminishi, vice-president, Ruby Tsubouchi, secretary and Ken Hardy, treasurer, helped in staging the rummage sale and the final activities of the year.

Now that big moment in our lives has come. We are ready to leave childhood behind and take up our roles as adults. For us this may mean marriage, Korea, jobs or college. For the last four years we have been preparing for this step while attending Monterey Union High School. Of the graduating class, many of us have been here the whole four years. We have seen many changes: the building of Treasure Music Hall, additional parking lots, the Tennis Shack, and now the plans for a new English Building. Our reminiscing goes back to that day in the spring of 1950 when we came up to view the campus as eighth grade students, not knowing one hall from the other. But not all the changes have been tangible. The student body has grown, and many new courses have been added to the curriculum. We remember the feeling of awe we had as freshmen when we first stepped on the stage and now as seniors, we stand waiting in the wings—our lines learned—ready to take our places on the "broadway" of the future.

SECOND LEADS

Always on the ball, the class of '54 took active parts in many of the acts during the year. The construction of the Snack Shack at the beginning of the year and two booths in the May Carnival paved the way for their big achievement, the Junior-Senior Prom. Deep Purple was the theme of the year's biggest formal held at Asilomar and chairmanned by Bev Drake. Advising them in their many projects was Miss Eileen Brereton.

Larry Feliciano took over the spotlight as the rest of the Junior Class officers Bev Drake, social chairman, Babs Krick, secretary, Bonnie Vandervort, vice-president, and Frances Carnazzo, treasurer, helped him to stage the Junior-Senior Prom.

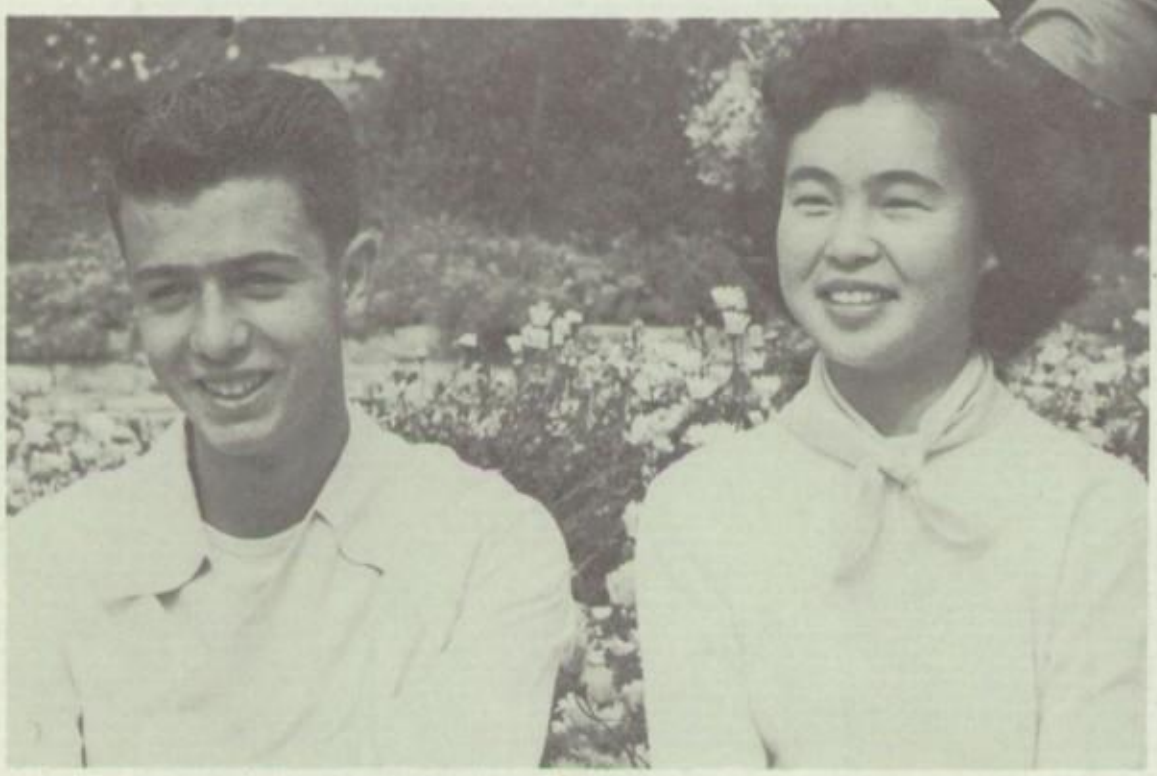
After a year of initiation in the ways of high school life, the sophomore class came back from their summer vacation invigorated old veterans. As a result they sponsored the May Carnival, the biggest event of the spring, which proved as usual to be a great success. Mr. Gordon Downey was the adviser.

CHORUS

Mike Artellan, Vince Ruccello, and Gene Iino were elected by members of the production chorus—the freshman class—to be their president, vice-president, and secretary during their debut.



Three hundred and forty-six strong the freshman class came in wide-eyed and hesitant at the beginning of the school year. But they soon got over their bewilderment and were able to find their way to classes and open their lockers with a minimum amount of trouble. They settled into the routine and became active in school life, participating in sports, joining new clubs and taking roles in extra-curricular activities. Advising the class of '55 was Mr. Doug McNeil.

PRODUCERS BACK REPEAT PERFORMANCE OF "MUHS"

Directing and producing MUHS '53 was the job of Mr. Glen T. Goodwill, superintendent of schools, and Mr. Carl McDonald, high school principal. From opening day on September 10, 1952, until the final performance of June 12, 1953, these two—with the help of their administrative assistants and a large faculty—have staged a super-colossal variety of dramatic and comical incidents that made this show different from all others. It was also the last run for Mr. Ernest Morehead who will retire after coaching MUHS students for a quarter of a century.

BACK STAGE CREW

Yellow Cab drivers of MUHS keep traffic moving to and from the "theatre on the hilltop" with their daily bus loads of thespians. From the Big Sur stop at 7 o'clock until the last detention refugee is home, these men and their assistants are constantly on the move.

Keeping the stage cleared of rubbish, the gardens blooming and free from weeds, and the entire set in continual operation are the duties of our property managers. Carpenters, electricians, janitors and laundrymen—they perform a necessary part of the action back stage.

KEEP UP THE SET

A new twist to an everyday routine, we picture the cafeteria staff eating their own concoctions. When hungry troupers pour into the cafeteria for their mid-day meal, these are the "master chefs" whose back stage chores give the cast renewed "'brain-food" for afternoon classes.

Pictured here are some of our stage managers, those secretaries who supply us with lost clothes and locker combinations and green slips when the deans are gone. Messages of every description, switchboard calls and transcriptions keep these workers busy and the play in progress.

Mrs. Amy Nakasako, Miss Nancy Tsubouchi, Mrs. Marge Arnett, Mrs. Mary Cove.

Necessary to every high school production are the various clubs and organizations. Some of them are service groups like the Key Club and the Hi-Y; some plan the social activities while others give students with similar interests a chance to meet informally as do the FHA and the language clubs. That all of them play an important part in the activities at MUHS you'll see as the spotlight illuminates the action . . . ON STAGE.

ON STAGE

BUSINESS MANAGERS

Directing the financial affairs of the 1953 enterprise were the Legislature members. The homeroom representatives and student body officers met twice a month in the library to determine the course of student affairs and to plan the general policy of all student activities.

An elaborately staged election campaign complete with speeches and skits preceeded initial executive action. Then under the supervision of Mr. Carl McDonald, principal, and Mr. Harry Sortais, director of the student bank, M U H S legislators managed to satisfy varied student interests while carrying out their duties as financial managers.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES for the first semester was President Bill Alioto.

HARDWORKING REPRESENTATIVES in the legislature were: Front row: L. Knight, G. Iino, M. Shintani, S. Danielson, J. Googins, M. Miya, B. Guilford, M. Getz, M. Crivello; Row 2: S. Yoshinobu, K. ▲ YELL LEADERS Louise Donato, Bette Fraga, and Stella Crivello varied their costumes with the season.

◀ ALTERNATES Alice Daniels, kneeling, and Sharon Jones filled in on the yell teams and song teams when ever-ever illness left a gap in either group.

▼ SONG LEADERS Diana Glover, Sue Cortner, Rose Flores, and Gerry Sherlock added color and pep to the "time out's" when the band cut loose.

LIBRARY STAFF

As essential to the smooth running of the library as a stage crew is to a musical comedy are the girls and boys who make up the library staff. Their main activities are the issuing and checking in of books, replacing and mending books, and assisting students in finding reference materials.

Under the direction of Miss Harriet Baker, MUHS librarian, and her assistant Virginia Gillespie, the library staff members have become efficient workers.

OFFICE WORKERS

No production can be successful without an efficient staff, and at MUHS it is the girls of the office staff who keeps things running smoothly. They receive credit for handling such jobs as collecting absence slips, taking messages, waiting on the public, typing, operating the mimeograph and ditto machines, and running errands for members of the faculty.

Under the capable supervision of Miss Lorraine Giguiere, arrangements were made to have various speakers come to talk to the girls and acquaint them with job-methods in local offices.

Office staff workers were: Front row: J. Pisto, S. Noto, S. McCool, C. Carswell, M. A. Cardinale, M. Hutcheson, J. Freitas, C. Fernandez; Middle row: R. LoCoco, T. Goulart, A. Rozario, J. FRENCH CLUB

A delightful intermission from school tasks for the thirty members of the French Club and Mr. Henry Baron, their adviser, was the Tuesday noon meeting every other week in room 74.

Among the activities which were planned and carried through this year were an international picnic and a booth at the May Carnival.

Club members can be identified on campus by their silver pins which bear the club name, J-3.

SPANISH CLUB

Cascarones have been the identifying symbol of Spanish Club members and the club booth in the May Carnival for a number of years, and once again the members collected egg shells, cut crepe paper, and emptied the paste pots in preparation for that popular spring sport—smashing cascarones on unsuspecting friends' heads.

New members were initiated at a pot-luck dinner held the spring semester. Early in May the club members and their adviser, Miss Eileen Brereton, completed the year's activities, with a picnic at Big Sur to which members of the French, German, and Latin groups were invited.

LATIN CLUB

Saturnalia, the Roman banquet festival, highlighted the activities of the Latin Club in 1953. Club members attended the banquet dressed in Roman costumes.

The initiation of new members, a harvest festival, a dance, and a share in the international picnic were other activities eagerly participated in by members of the group.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Anne Petersen, adviser, the "Discipuli Romani" has completed a full and active year.

CYF

Christian fellowship, is the basis upon which the CYF, Christian Youth Fellowship, is founded. This non-sectarian organization is open to anyone who is interested in Christian fellowship, wholesome good times, and serious thought.

As their project for the year, members chose to provide a Christmas basket for a needy family, complete with a chicken dinner and presents for the children.

Mr. Philip Seitz and Mr. Arnold Edman, CYF sponsors, saw that the Monday meetings which highlighted the week were efficiently carried out with songs and a student or guest speaker.

SCIENCE AND MATH

Outstanding performances were made by members of the Science and Math Club at their weekly meetings as they participated in scientific demonstrations.

The group was very active during the year, presenting a chemistry show during Public Schools' Week, taking a trip with their advisers to the San Francisco Planetarium and various city museums, and attending a science and math club convention at Asilomar. At this convention, the MUHS Club became a member of the newly organized statewide Science and Math Club.

HI - Y

The spotlight was turned upon the Hi-Y this year as, under the direction of a group of capable officers and Mr. Martin Glasser, faculty adviser, the boys took the center of the stage by becoming active in school affairs.

An after-game dance, held after the Santa Cruz-Monterey basketball game, was the first big activity that the Hi-Y sponsored. Next the club obtained the Khaki Kapades, a Fort Ord talent show which was greatly enjoyed by MUHS students, for an all-school assembly.

A joint swimming party with the Pacific Grove Hi-Y and Tri-Y and the new MUHS Tri-Y plus a hall ball held in the west wing were the parties that completed the boys' list of activities for the year.

In keeping with their newly assumed position as an up-and-coming group on campus, the Hi-Y boys obtained club jackets of black with the Hi-Y emblem which make them easily identifiable.

FHA MEMBERS PARTICIPATE

Intermission at home football games was highlighted for shivering fans by the food booth, serving hot dogs and coffee, which was set up by the Future Homemakers of America. Income from this enterprise finances all the activities of the club.

The FHA, with a membership of nearly 150 girls, requires that each member take at least one semester of home economics. Initiations were held in September and January to accommodate all those who wished to join the group.

Members participated in the state convention, held at Asilomar in October, and attended their section meeting in March at Campbell. Senior members of the organization were rewarded for their service to the FHA with a two-day trip to San Francisco on April 24 and 25.

Other activities in which the girls starred were

KEY CLUB

Intermission music for that break in the school day known as the luncheon hour was furnished this year by the Key Club, which arranged to have a juke box placed in the MUHS cafeteria.

The Key Club, which is sponsored by the Monterey Kiwanis Club, held a Career Day midway in the year so that the seniors could have the opportunity to hear speakers from the different vocational fields.

Members of the club this year established a scholarship fund in order to help some boy go on to college; the award will go each June to a graduating senior who will be chosen by a vote of the faculty. The initial award will be for $75.

Twerp Week, an annual event, was a great success this year; as the girls footed the bills for their escorts, how could it be anything else.

Mr. Arnold Edman, returned from a year in England, once again guided the boys in their many activities.

GALLEON

The Galleon, MUHS's bi-monthly paper, appeared seventeen times during the 1952-53 school year, evidence of much journalistic and artistic work on the part of the Galleon Staff, which was advised by Mrs. Myrtle Sperling.

In addition to editing the school paper, the staff sponsored many outside activities. November 21, long remembered as a day of fun and frolic, was the Sadie Hawkins' Day and Dance sponsored by the staff in conjunction with the Journalism Club.

To help finance their annual trip to San Francisco, staff members sold candy at the many home football and basketball games.

BOOK CLUB

Reading and discussing books occupied much of the time of the Book Club members. Club meetings were held in the MUHS library and were usually discussions of books read by the members. At several meetings the group was honored by having guest speakers from various places on the Peninsula.

A Christmas party and a booth in the May Carnival were the outside activities of the club.

The group was again advised by Miss Harriet Baker, school librarian.

Members of the Book Club were: Front row: B. Rodgers, D. Yuen—vice-pres. 1, pres. 2; H. Lew, M. J. Cardinale, C. Breshears, R. LoCoco, S. Quigley; Middle row: S. Stoddard—treas. 1, M. CAMERA CLUB

"Hold still, Tony!" The flash of a strobe light, the click of a shutter, and once again the school photographer has recorded a smiling face for the paper or the yearbook. Pictures taken by Camera members have appeared in the many issues of the Galleon and now appear throughout El Susurro.

Members of the club took a trip to San Francisco where they toured the Bear Studio and received many helpful suggestions for taking and developing pictures.

Mr. Elmer Stoll, adviser of the group, has taught the club members many tricks of the trade which have helped them do successful work.

RADIO CLUB

Radio and electronics, as a hobby or a vocation, were the interests upon which the Radio Club was founded, and the thirteen members have either taken radio as a school subject or been greatly interested in it.

Mr. Robert Combellack, the club adviser, has assisted the boys in various ways, especially so that they might increase their knowledge in the field of radio and electronics.

The activities of the club included a picnic and participating in the May Carnival.

Music for every occasion was furnished by hard-working members of the Girls' Glee Club.

Trying for uniformity and pleasing appearance, the girls made uniforms for themselves of green skirts, white blouses, and yellow scarfs.

As an active organization, the girls participated in programs presented at assemblies at MUHS, Fremont and Walter Colton Junior High Schools and as part of the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts. To round out their schedule, the members, under the leadership of Mr. Reu Manhire, also sang at the San Carlos Hotel, the U.S.O., and before the local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Kiwanis Club.

MIXED CHORUS

Occupying a prominent position in all programs presented by the MUHS music department, the Mixed Chorus has completed a very successful year performing at home and elsewhere in California.

The Thanksgiving and Christmas programs were eagerly participated in by the chorus while the Spring Concert was the highlight of their MUHS performance. Outside activities included a choir festival at Berkeley and the Central Coast Section Music Festival.

Officers for the group which will present its last program as part of the graduation ceremonies are Dan Douglas, president; Gloria White, secretary-treasurer; Audrey Tevini, librarian; Dorothy Polk, publicity chairman, Mr. Reu Manhire is director of the chorus.

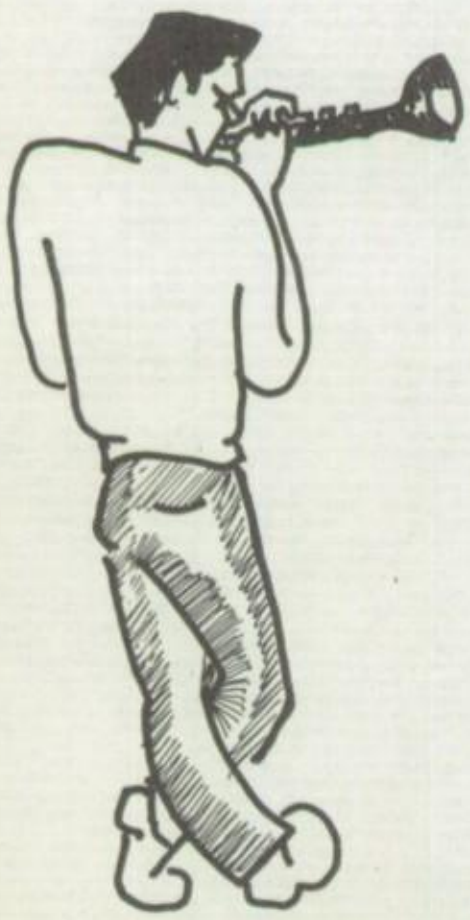
BAND PROVIDES MUSICAL ACCOMPANIMENT



Occupying the center of the stage at all MUHS musical programs, the band under the direction of Mr. Clifford Anderson has won an assured spot in the regard of the school and community.

Any assembly program featuring the band is a sure-fire hit. Rallies quickly respond to the enthusiasm of the band. Football crowds are not annoyed by half-time out; instead the fans get their hot coffee quickly and return to the stands to watch the marching band perform.

During the football season Mr. Anderson and the band members work out and practice many intricate formation with which to entertain the crowd, and every "time out" is a signal for Mr. Anderson to strike up the band with a spirited school song.

Most eagerly awaited of the band programs are the

FOR ALL ACTS OF "MUHS 53"

Christmas and Spring Concerts, given annually in conjunction with the choral music groups. This year, proceeds from the Spring concert were set aside to pay entry fees for the various festivals in which the band participates and to buy award pins for the senior band members.

Special activities in which the band took part were an exchange assembly at Gilroy High School, a concert at the U.S.O., the dedication of a music hall at San Jose, and High School Band Day at the University of California, where the band members saw the California-Missouri football game.

Once again the band played at the Coast Counties Music Festival, giving a very satisfying performance, and concluded the school year with its usual stirring performance of "Pomp and Circumstance."

PALETTEERS

"All the world's a stage" and the Paletteers took to the MUHS gymnasium stage last fall as every year to present a variety show, full of action and talent, which lived up to the high standard of earlier productions.

This was just one of the many activities which the Paletteers sponsored. They also held a farewell party for several members who joined the armed forces, entered the Scholastic Art Contest, and went on a three-day trip to San Francisco.

Under the guidance of Miss Sophie Harpe, the club adviser, the Paletteers had a very successful year.

CSF

Scholastic stars of MUHS are the members of the CSF, the California Scholarship Federation, an organization honoring the high scholastic standing of high school students.

To gain membership in CSF, a student must have earned at least three A's and one B in his semester grades. As a member, the student receives a small gold torch with the initials SS, which stand for the Federation motto, "Scholarship for Service."

Life members of the CSF, those students who have been in CSF for six semesters, receive pins at graduation showing that they have achieved this honor.

BULLFIGHTERS

Gate crashers at MUHS football and basketball productions didn't stand a chance against the Bullfighters who collected tickets at the gate and helped police the games. They aided the faculty in keeping order at other functions when called upon.

Mr. Duncan Todd was adviser of the club which can be credited with a successful return to campus activities.

T AND I

Boys who are enrolled in the production department at MUHS, the shop classes, are members of the Trade and Industrial Club. The purpose of the organization is to promote good fellowship among the members of the shop department, to develop good citizenship, and to tie in trade and industrial education with the community through contacts with employers and employees in the community.

Mr. Marvin Holman, the club sponsor, helps the boys with many of their trade problems.

Big production on campus this year was the organization of a girls' service club, the Tri-Y, which got off to a good start with the help of advisers Miss Helen Smith and Miss Bettylyle Westbrook.

A cake sale started the girls off with money in the treasury while their booth at the May Carnival brought in additional sums. The first project which this new club undertook then was the redecoration of the home of a young Peninsula couple.

Officers for the Tri-Y were Barbara Marshall, president; Mary Neff, vice-president; Bonnie Vandervort, secretary; and Theresa Goulart, treasurer. Members of the service group, which will help with various activities on the Peninsula in the future, were Liz Beall, Maryanne Crivello, Tamara Costanti, Phil Reed, Babs Colletto, Diane Gadsby, Sylvia Gee, Judy O'Rear, Kathy Moore, Carol Doody, Roberta Lute, Rose Tarantino, Sherry Gravelle, Pat Gann, Ruth Paine, Frances Carnazzo, and Diane Glover.

By making a donation to the Red Cross, any student can become a member of the Junior Red Cross, an organization which renders service in the community.

The girls and their sponsor, Miss Clara Shapard, undertook to help a needy family this year. To raise money for the Red Cross Center, the club members collected money at one of the school assemblies.

As a final project for the year, the Junior Red Cross sent magazines and funny books to soldiers in the Fort Ord Hospital. This reading material was obtained from the school and club members.

As Editor of the 1953 El Susurro, Janet McLean writes a successful climax to her four years as an active members of the student body.

Going into production with initial plans during the summer, the El Susurro staff has been busy all year with this year's "program of events." Besides the actual job of selling ads and subscriptions, planning pages, taking and mounting pictures, writing copy and then matching faces and names, the staff sponsored the February Heart Hop. Another highlight was the "yearbook workshop" at the University of Redlands which was attended by the Editor and Business Manager.

Now that most of the work is completed, it can rain when it pleases for all the pictures have been taken, and if the lights go out as they did one night when staffers were stranded in the little office, it's O.K. because the copy is finished and pictures are mounted.

Here then, is the 1953 El Susurro, the program from this year at Monterey Union High School.

PROGRAM

"Da darkroom boys" whose time was spent taking and developing pictures are shown during a time-out-from-duty period, hence the glum expressions on Jack Russo, Bob Blaisdell, Louis Carnazzo, Bob Meyers and Doug Forzani. Carroll Brittan, publicity, and Sandy Wright, school life, look much happier because their work is completed.

Selling subscriptions to a student body of more than a thousand students was the task Mary Neff, sales manager, Shirley Helwig, Diana Marron, Jo Pisto, Sharon Quigley, Babs Colleto, (standing) Shirley Pittenger and David Beall carried out at the beginning of the year. Under a new system of yearbook distribution, they all saw service the last week of school.

Living in an area where sports are prominent and varied, MUHS students spend their time between the acts on the football field, in the gym, the pool, or at the ball park. For the girls it may be the hockey field, badminton or tennis courts, and sport fans may troop to the basketball courts or track fields, but you'll see what did happen as the spotlight hits the . . . TOREADORES SURPRISE

Working a single-wing for all it was worth, Coach Stan Weiss and his hard-hitting Toreadores pushed their way into second place in Coast County Athletic League standings after losing two heartbreakers to Watsonville, the league champions, the last by the slim margin of two conversion points. It was the first time since the year of the Big Green Shirt that a Monterey team has furnished so effective an offense.

In the opening minutes of play against Pittsburg, the Toreador varsity appeared to be an uncertain quantity. But after the Green and Gold took control of the ball, it became evident that the Monterey offense was too strong for the Pirates—and for everyone else until the Toreadores came up against the Wildcats from the Apple City.

The Toreadores played to a standstill in their second practice tilt with the Bearcats from San Mateo, effectively bottling up the passing attack of ace quarterback Ralph Wensinger and springing fullback Jackie Russo for gain after gain through the Bearcat line.

LEAGUE WITH SINGLE-WING POWERHOUSE

Equally outstanding play in league games won Russo the fullback position on the All-CCAL offensive unit. Teammates who were also elected to stardom were diminutive guard Doug Forzani, fast-charging tackle Delmer Scales, sky-scraping 6-foot 7-inch end Charlie Howell, and passing wizard Nick Hazdovac, who filled the tailback spot. Positions on the honor defensive unit were garnered by Delmer Scales at end and John "Little Rock" Compagno as linebacker. Two Toreadores who received honorable mention were Ed Woods, defensive halfback, and Sal A. Aiello, defensive tackle.

League play began with Monterey trouncing the Santa Cruz Cardinals on the hill-top gridiron. The Toreadores carried their hard-hitting tactics into two plays after the final gun when Frank Casas scored the team's fifth TD on a pass from Sal J. Aiello.

Watsonville nabbed the spotlight and first place in CCAL standings in a hard-fought defensive battle played on the Monterey Peninsula College field. Until the Wildcats took advantage of an intercepted pass, the game was scoreless. They then went on to score a second time, blanking Monterey.

An injury-ridden Salinas team fell easy victim to the Toreadores, who once again scored after the final gun ended the ball game.

The second round of league play began under the lights with Monterey taking the measure of Santa Cruz for the second time. The following weekend the Toreadores' hopes of conquering the Wildcats, whom they outplayed until the final period, were dashed when a bad pass from center set up the winning touchdown for the 'Cats.

The Toreadores finished the season on the rain-drenched MPC gridiron before a small crowd of loyal fans, who saw them cinch second place in the CCAL race by defeating the Cowboys from Salinas by a score of 26-12.

TITLE IN FINALE

Sparked throughout the season by players of All-CCAL caliber, the Monterey Toreababes stayed in the race for first position in the lightweight standings until they faced the Salinas Cowbabes in their final game.

Four Toreababes were honored by coaches and sportswriters with positions on the All-CCAL team. Norman Olson, end, Shig Yamahara, back, and Larry Feliciano, guard, made the offensive squad; wild Mannie Lucido, hard-hitting back, took the sole spot on the defensive team.

The lightweight squad, which picked up a second name, Matadors, started off in the win column with impressive victories in practice games with Hollister and King City junior varsity. With the beginning of CCAL competition, the Babes alternated between the loss and win columns, dropping games to Santa Cruz and Salinas while conquering Watsonville's Wildkittens both at home and away.

Coach Doug McNeil, who returned to the grid war to lead his charges through the 1953 season, was handicapped during his most critical game with Salinas by a severe case of "no voice." At that time his assistant, Coach Dave Cooney of the MUHS English Department, who handled the line coaching job most ably, added to his coaching chores the thankless Charlie-McCarthy job of relaying Coach McNeil's usually-shouted battle plan to the Babes. Despite this team work, Salinas won.

Playing their last season for the Babes and MUHS, Ken Hardy and Shig Yamahara turned in outstanding performances time after time.

TOREADORES CLOSE SEASON WITH STRONG BID FOR TITLE

Loyal students and fans saw the 1953 Toreador casaba team recover from a shaky start in CCAL competition to press the Santa Cruz Cardinals hard for the league crown. The squad, despite its brilliant play in literally waxing the Cardinals the second time around the league, wound up in second place, winning a bid to the Carmel Invitational Tournament.

The team spirit and all-around hustle displayed by the boys was evidence of the fine coaching hand of Ed Larsh, varsity basketball mentor. In the second half of league play, his casaba team was unbeatable until it met an equally strong team from Pacific Grove High in the Carmel Invitational—a team out to avenge two previous defeats at the hands of the Toreadores.

John Logan and Charlie Howell played outstanding ball for MUHS and won positions on the All-CCAL squad which is chosen each spring by the sportswriters and league coaches. Charlie was a standout on the backboards throughout the entire season and pushed point after point through the net for the Toreadores. John Logan, though small in stature, turned in a terrific floor game and along with Charlie gave the Toreadores the punch they needed in running the score up against all opposition.

In the second Salinas game Coach Larsh established a precedent for himself by starting two sophomores, Frank Casas and Ray Stensland, who justified his confidence by turning in a fine game. Regular starters whose performances were consistently of high caliber were Ray Cardinale, a senior guard, and Dominic Canepa, a junior guard who won honorable mention on the all-league team.

Opening the season against the highly touted Cardinals on their home court, the Toreadores led their opponents through three quarters played at a blistering pace. They were overtaken in the fourth quarter and were never able to overcome the comfortable lead that the Cardinals set up. In the rematch three weeks later, the Toreadores effectively bottled up the Cardinals' towering center, Rich Montgomery, and the outcome was a different story. However, the Santa Cruz win coupled with a defeat at the hands of the Salinas Cowboys cost the Toreadores the league championship.

TOREABABES MEET STIFF COMPETITION IN CCAL

Coast Counties Athletic League competition in the lightweight basketball division was dominated again by the Salinas Cowbabes, and Coach Bob Clark's Toreababes suffered a discouraging number of ups and downs. The Babes gained considerable experience in going up against tough, hard-fighting opponents during their rough 15-game schedule.

Coach Clark encouraged the idea of building for the future, and he expects great things from his charges in the next two years. His squad was made up for the most part of sophomores, but several lettermen will return to him next season.

Sam Cardinale was the lone Toreababe to make the All-CCAL lightweight team by choice of the coaches and sportswriters. His steady play was a big factor in most of the league games as he hit consistently from the corners.

Mannie Lucido, Dale DeSilva, John Souza, Cardinale, and either Louie Yamanishi or Dudie Belleci made up the usual starting five. These Babes shared playing time and scoring honors with Andy Gonzales, Buster Billante, Doug Sutton, and Vince Torrente as none of the boys was consistent in piling up field goals.

Individual performances were occasionally outstanding and kept the season from being generally disappointing.

Especially noteworthy was Andy Gonzalez' efforts in the second game with Pacific Grove when he sparked the team in the third quarter to increase the Toreababe lead over the Wavelets. Andy scored ten points in the game against the B Division champions. Mannie Lucido's energetic play was also exceptional.

▲ DRIVING IN HARD, Buster Billante scores two for the Toreababes.

TOREADOR NINE OPENS STRONG IN CCAL RACE

Hampered by the lack of a ball park, Coach Ben Mansell nevertheless managed to field a hustling, hard-hitting nine by making full use of the girls' athletic field and working his baseball players rain or shine.

Results have far outshone what might have been expected of a squad loaded with underclassmen and working under such unsatisfactory conditions. In four practice games with Monterey Peninsula College, Pacific Grove, and Carmel High School, the Toreadores netted four wins and gained valuable experience.

Opening CCAL play against Salinas in the Lettuce City, the Toreadores outhit the Cowboys and outlasted them to win 11-7, as fireman Art Wright came in to protect Frank Casas' lead. The following week Wright came back with his stingy arm to space three hits through a seven-inning stint against the Cardinals from Santa Cruz for a 2-0 win.

Nearly the entire squad will return to play next year as second baseman Ray Cardinale, third baseman Joey Rogers, and right fielder Jim Stewart are the only seniors.

Leading scorers in the various events were: sprints, Carl Vachal and Dick Collins; 880, Larry Brown; 440, Allan Woodward; mile, Gary Oleari; hurdles, Mickey Bradshaw and John Nye; weight events, Del Scales, Doug Forzani, A. C. Sweat, Wayne Gann, Charlie Caldwell, and Vito Spadaro; jumps, Carl Vachal, Sal A. Aiello, Dominic Mineo, and Domingos Luiz.

Several fine athletes were lost to the squad when they took after school jobs.

Only about a dozen boys were on the varsity track squad by the end of the season, but several of them turned in some very fine performances. Two new school records were set: Larry Brown ran the 880 in 2 min. 5.2 sec., and Del Scales put the shot 51 feet.

The team scored wins over King City, Carmel, Gilroy, and Santa Cruz, finishing second to Pacific Grove, Watsonville, and Salinas.

LIGHTWEIGHTS SCORE EASY WINS, MISS CLOSE ONES

"The best in recent years" was the accolade given this year's lightweight track squad, which received additional help because of the large turnout of new boys. Jim Riso and Charles Vandagriff broke the school's high hurdle record, which Jim now holds. Norman Payton, sophomore sprinter, tied the record in the 150.

Easy wins over Pacific Grove, Carmel, King City, Santa Cruz, and Gilroy encouraged the Toreababes who lost two good efforts against Watsonville and Salinas. In the match with Salinas, the results were in doubt until the last event was concluded.

Leading members of the team were: sprints, Payton and John Indorato; hurdles, Riso and Vandagriff; weight events: Doug Sutton and Wilfred Miller; jumps, Riso, Gene Stokes, and Ron Palmer; pole vault, Stokes and Martin Hardy; 330, John Veach and Dick Woods; 660, John Curatolo, Ernie Ray; 1320, Don Kinsey and Sal Vermi.

With the ushering in of spring, the divot diggers of Monterey Union High School once again went out on the fairways, working to straighten out their hooks and slices so that they might have another successful season.

A strong contender for the league crown, the Toreador golf team had several warm-up matches with some of the stronger teams in the area before CCAL play began. Pete Geyer, senior, played first man on the team again, followed by Adrian Montiel and Dominic Canepa, both juniors, in the second and third positions. Two sophomores, Frank Casas and Mike Younkin, rounded out the team.

TOREADOR MERMEN IN NCS MEET

Always a powerhouse in Northern California swim competition, the Toreador swim team splashed into the water in March in search of another CCAL championship. The team was led by such reliable mermen as Captain Joe Neary, sophomore Jim Olson, who showed great promise in the 100-yard free style, and Bob Marron, a strong competitor in the breast stroke.

With an eye to building for the future, "Uncle John" Poskus had a flock of newcomers in all of the B division events. The lightweights had meets with Del Monte School for Boys and Willow Glen High School to open the season, emerging as winners in both of these engagements.

The varsity looked forward to the NCS meet after the regular CCAL meet, having lost to a strong Monterey Peninsula College team and come out on the short end of the engagement with Willow Glen, 34-32.

TENNIS TEAM COPS TITLE

The curtain dropped this year on another successful scene from hill-top high's presentation of its local tennis talent. For the sixteenth straight year Monterey took top honors in the CCAL contests. To add to their many "Oscars," they trounced San Leandro High, which last year was supposed to have the best cast of high school tennis players. They also presented a splendid performance in conquering the frosh squad of the University of California.

Among those taking leading roles were John Logan and Randy Reinstedt, both of whom gave their farewell performances this year. Anthony Russo and Howard Siever also took leading parts in the year's play.

INTRAMURAL PROGRAM

To supply an athletic program for boys who were not participating in the regular interscholastic athletic program, Coach Stan Weiss organized an intramural program during the basketball and baseball seasons.

Ten teams competed in the basketball schedule which ended in a tie between the Blockbusters and the Faculty; each team lost only one game. Individual scoring honors went to Albert McKinney of the Seaside All-Stars who racked up 45 points in one game and ran up a season total of 173 points. Close behind McKinney was Dean Schuman with 40 points for one game. The other teams represented were the LTAA (Lunch Time Athletic Association), Anchovies, Picadores, Sardines, Squids, Strokers, and Demons.

In the spring the Faculty, Blockbusters, and LTAA were joined by three new teams, the Moto's, Elkins Yankees, and the Dodgers, who made up a schedule for the softball league.

BLOCK M

Action on the athletic field is symbolized by a Block M which can be worn by members of varsity or lightweight athletic teams. Varsity M's can be earned in football, basketball, baseball, track, swimming, tennis, or golf; however, lightweight M's cannot be earned in tennis, golf, and baseball.

Impressive, large yellow M's were awarded for varsity sports this year.

The boys, who have Coach Ed Larsh as their sponsor, held their annual banquet in June. A guest speaker from Stanford University high lighted the after-dinner program.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls' Athletic Association is made up of girls who voluntarily take part in after-school sports. Switching games with the seasons, they play hockey, volleyball, basketball, baseball, and archery.

To become members of the G.A.A., girls must acquire 200 points by participating in the intramural athletic program. By adding to their point total, they may gain additional awards: for 600 points, numeral; for 900 points, a block; and for 1300 points, a star.

Under the direction of their sponsor, Miss Helen Smith, the girls have changed their intramural set-up so that now teams are chosen by the girls. The teams, each of which is named, then play a round-robin.

Among the many activities sponsored by the G.A.A. this year were a Playday, an after-game dance, and a Potluck and Slumber Party.

TENNIS CLUB

"There it goes! Hit it again!" were the expressions often heard on the MUHS tennis courts as the members of the Girls' Tennis Club practiced and played in the afternoon.

The girls conducted a ladder tournament to see which girl was the most skillful player, and also a doubles tournament. Miss Bettylyle Westbrook, the adviser, could be seen hard at work with the club members.

BLOCK M

A smash hit are the girl athletes who won Block M's. These letter awards symbolize hard work and many long hours spent participating in after-school sports.

Miss Carol Guido, sponsor of the club which was organized only last year, is given much credit for helping the girls to carry on successfully.

MERMAIDS CAPTURE CROWD

Front and center on the stage at Public Schools' Week were the members of the girls' swimming group, and once again they captivated their audience. The Spectators' gallery at the hill-top pool has been outgrown as far as their particular spectacle is concerned.

A repeat performance on the evening of the May Carnival made it possible for many students and adults to see the show who could not crowd in on April 29.

The success of the swim show is well earned as the girls give many hours after school in the evening, and even on Saturdays and Sundays, to perfecting their water ballets. Miss Westbrook and Miss Smith are deserving of all the credit that the Public Schools' Week program can give in its acknowledgments.

For the cast at MUHS, the lights did not go off at the end of the class periods. From the first week and the Freshman reception until the last week of senior activities, there were dances, picnics, trips, assemblies and rallies that gave added spark to our performance. Pictured in the next section are the events that went up on the studded marque for the outstanding activities . . . BACK STAGE.

CITY CLEANERS

Are you very careless
when you are eating soup?
Or does your gal smear lipstick
on your clean white shirt?
Don't give up life, and don't complain,
If these things are your curse and bane.
For there is hope for your misdemeanor
Just stop in at the City Cleaners.

CREDITS

. . . .To Mr. Stoll and the photography department for the endless hours in the darkroom. . . . To the faculty for their co-operation with the staff. . . . To The Herald Printers and Publishers. . . . To the parents of staff members who put up with many late hours. . . . To the back-stage crew who kept the production on schedule. . . . To Mrs. Knight, our adviser, for her patience and helpful criticism. . . . To the merchants who supported the advertising section. . . . To the business men who loaned us the props for our division pages; Flor de Monterey, Mission Mortuary. . . To Mr. William L. Morgan for going sky high to take the shot for our end sheets. . . . To a wonderful staff for their voluntary contributions—

Thanks!
